ACCOMPANYING EVENTS

Thursday, 07.00 p.m., November 27th, 2008 |

Evening Gala Concert in the Polish National Opera

The artistic programme, taking place in the historic interiors of the Polish National Opera, dedicated especially to the participants of the “Summit on Sectoral Cooperation”, guarantees exceptional music experience. Concert will be followed by an official dinner.

Friday, 07.00 p.m., November 28th, 2008 |

Jazz Evening Concert

Evening full of jazz in the very heart of Praga, one of oldest Warsaw districts. The venue of the Evening: “Koneser Factory”, where premium spirits have been produced continuously for 140 years; one of the most interesting industrial buildings in Poland. The former factory halls have been transformed into galleries and ateliers hosting concerts and performances. The characteristic complex made of red bricks is a good example of city revitalization. During the evening the songs of John Lennon, Stevie Wonder, Leonard Cohen, Duke Ellington and Ray Charles will be performed by Aga Zaryan – young, but well recognized in the world of jazz, Polish vocalist. The concert will be followed by a traditional Polish dinner.

Both events will be hosted by Mr Waldemar Pawlak, the Deputy Prime Minister, Minister of Economy, Republic of Poland.
